Hello it's po Mostek, can you give me a call please when you have a moment?

Got your video

Okay awesome thank you

What does his new dog look like?

It's a black pit bull with white fur at the belly/neck area

Okay bc it's hard to see the face of the person who did it and happened at 759am.

Okay, I believe et does have fingerprints also if he did anything to the tire

Doesn't look like it in video, just the mirror and sticky notes

Okay thank you very much

Yup we still have to ID the person

Okay, thanks for all your time with all this. Hopefully the neighbor gets his act together

If it's even him, I don't know who is in the video is what I'm saying

Okay I see

The et did get prints from the mirror too if u need that info

I doubt they came back, but I didn't get that report back but kent has never been arrested

Okay thank you for checking

At least we have video saved

Yup and inventoried and time it happened and direction he was walking, looks like a brown dog with white bottom, dude is wearing a light blue coat, black hat and jeans, tall and lanky

Okay I hope he does

Don't worry I'll write up a good report for you that you can print out

That's much appreciated thank you

No problem you know Stephanie Liberatos from vice?

Bad news it was not kent

He does have kids, who was it?

One looks like he would be about 19-21 yoa

White guy black hair with a small brown and white dog, made a right on your corner onto 29th St and keep walking

Is the dog a pit bull?

Hello I received this message today from all that's going on from the incident. I did get an Amazon package delivered yesterday don't know if it's a delivery person that sent this. But I was wondering if we should do a supp report or what kind of report do u recommend?

Definitely document it under a new RD#

Okay do u know if I could do it over 311 or go into the station?

You could try 311. It's telephone threat at least

Okay thanks for the advice

Good luck, hopefully your ok

Can you move??

I'm going to start looking around for other places to stay later this month
